

INDEX

Entries in boldface type indicate complete chapters.

- Amobarbital. See Sodium amylal (amobarbital)
 - Antisocial personality disorder, 8-9
 - Avoidant personality disorder, 9-10
 - Biopsychosocial conceptualization, of functional disorders, 147-148
 - Body dysmorphic disorder, 6
 - Borderline personality disorder, 9
 - Case manager, as team member, patient treatment and, 60
 - Cerebrovascular accident (CVA), applied psychophysiology and, 30
 - Cognition/speech, hysterical symptoms and, 68-69
 - Communication
 - among staff members, 56-57
 - with patient, 57
 - Conversion disorders, 3-4
 - acute versus chronic, 51
 - definition of, hysteria and, 45
 - diagnosis of, 46-48
 - patient characteristics in, rehabilitation and, 45-47
 - physiatrist and, role of, 52
 - problem patients and, 51-52
 - rehabilitation approaches to, 48
 - rehabilitation of, programmatic experience in, 45-52
 - standard rehabilitation program for, 48-51
 - strategic behavioral rehabilitation in 49-51
- Coping, measures of, 150
- Dependent personality disorder, 9
 - Depression, in neurosensitization syndromes, 14
 - Doctor-patient relationship, malingering and, 96-99
 - DSM-IV psychological diagnoses, 157-159
 - Dynamometry, soft tissue injury and, 82-83, 88-89
 - Electroencephalography (EEG), 25-26
 - Exaggeration, in malingering, 7
 - Extension, in malingering, 8
 - Fabrication, in malingering, 7
 - Factitious disorder, 6-7
 - Focal incontinence, applied psychophysiology and, 28
 - Forced-choice testing, for exaggerated sensory symptoms, 115-116
 - Functional medical disorders
 - diagnostic feedback for, 163-166
 - in rehabilitation, true spectrum of, 1-20
 - Functional medical disorders (cont.)
 - psychological instruments for, 147-162
 - psychological referrals for, 163-166
 - sodium amylal (amobarbital) for, 131-146
 - disorders and, 71
 - Functional symptoms, common systemic disorders and, 71
 - Goniometry (inclination), soft tissue injury and, 83, 89-90
 - Histrionic personality disorder, 9
 - Hypochondriasis, 5-6
 - Hysteria
 - clinical phenomenology of, 63-64
 - definition of, conversion disorders and, 45
 - investigations for, 70-71
 - meaning of, throughout history, 37-40
 - neuroanatomic substrate of, functional neuroimaging and, 72-74
 - pain and, time and meaning in history of, 37-44
 - psychological assessment in, 71-72
 - Hysterical symptoms
 - neurological assessment of, 64-70
 - autonomic/endocrine considerations and, 69-70
 - cognition/speech and, 68-69
 - motor, 64-65
 - pain/paralysis as, 41-43
 - paroxysmal events and, 67-68
 - sensory, 66-67
 - special senses and, 67
 - Interdisciplinary challenges, in treatment, 53-61
 - Malingering, 7-8, 95-112
 - case example of, 107-109
 - detecting deception in, 101-106
 - diagnostic guidelines for, 109-110
 - doctor-patient relationship in, 96-99
 - exaggeration in, 7
 - extension in, 8
 - fabrication in, 7
 - medical-legal diagnostic relationship in, 106-107
 - misattribution in, 8
 - Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (MMPI) in, 105, 107-108
 - patient reports in, 99
 - psychological referrals for, 100-101
 - secondary gain concept and, 101
 - Migraine, applied psychophysiology and, 31
 - Malingering, 7-8, 95-112
 - case example of, 107-109
 - detecting deception in, 101-106
 - diagnostic guidelines for, 109-110
 - doctor-patient relationship in, 96-99
 - exaggeration in, 7
 - extension in, 8
 - fabrication in, 7
 - medical-legal diagnostic relationship in, 106-107
 - misattribution in, 8
 - Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (MMPI) in, 105, 107-108
 - patient reports in, 99
 - psychological referrals for, 100-101
 - secondary gain concept and, 101
 - Migraine, applied psychophysiology and, 31

